

How to Read Your Water Bill

Your monthly service bill is designed to help you easily identify how much you owe and when payment is due. It also provides a profile of your monthly water usage to help you monitor your water use and conservation efforts.

Previous Charges:

Indicates any previous unpaid balances. These charges are due immediately.

How to Reach Us:

Our address and phone number are conveniently placed at the top left hand corner.

Current Charges:

Indicates your current monthly charges and due date.

Usage:

This section helps you track your own consumption by giving both your current month's water usage and usage from the same period last year.
